

Code: 2116
Wine Title: Spatlese – Briederner Ruberberger Domherrenberg – Otto Gorgen
Phonetic Pronunciation: Shpate-Lays-er Bree-de-ner Roo-ber-bear - ger Dom-Herron-berg Ree-Sling
Region: Mosel
Country: Germany
Grapes: Riesling	ABV: 9%	Oak: No
Wine Description: Stunning medium dry white, whose grapes were harvested late “spatlese” ensuring riper more sugary grapes. With hints of honey and ripe pear but with an all-important crisp green apple fruit.
Food Match: Great with asian cuisine; sweet sour or sweet chilli.
Winery Information: Since 1707, eight generations of the G6rger family have been tending vines on the picturesque slopes of the Mosel Valley. With deep rooted history in wine making and working with the Riesling variety, they have always embraced modern styles of wine making. With a plethora of awards and accolades they continue to make vibrant styles of Riesling which underline the vivacity of the grape and the terroir.	Bottle Closure: Screw Cap	